

USEFUL WEBSITES FOR US STUDY

5 Steps to US Study

1. Research your options
2. Finance your study
3. Complete your application
4. Apply for your student visa
5. Prepare for your departure

Education USA - https://www.educationusa.state.gov/5\_steps\_to\_study/

Researching universities and studying in US

College Board - <https://www.collegeboard.org/>

College Board College Search (Big Future) - <https://bigfuture.collegeboard.org/college-search>

National Center for Education Statistics <http://nces.ed.gov/collegenavigator/>

College Net - <http://cnsearch.collegenet.com/cgi-bin/CN/index>

Peterson's - <http://www.petersons.com/college-search.aspx>

Princeton Review - <https://www.princetonreview.com/college-search>

American Association of Community Colleges - <http://www.aacc.nche.edu/pages/ccfinder.aspx>

Researching financial aid

Education USA - <https://educationusa.state.gov/find-financial-aid>

Institute of International Education, Funding for US study - <http://www.fundingusstudy.org/>

International Scholarships - <https://www.internationalscholarships.com/>

Fulbright (postgrad) - <http://www.fulbright.org.nz/>

The Smart Student guide to financial aid - <http://www.finaid.org/>

Sports scholarships

National Collegiate Athletic Association - <http://www.ncaa.org/>

National Junior College Athletic Association – <http://www.njcaa.org/>

National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics – <http://www.naia.org/>

Scholarship Stats - <http://www.scholarshipstats.com/>

Making your application

Common App - <http://www.commonapp.org/>

Coalition for Access, Affordability & Success - <http://www.coalitionforcollegeaccess.org/>